Zen Futral

has successfully completed the online, non-credit Specialization

Leading Technical Organizations

In this Specialization, learners developed and refined essential leadership skills for navigating complex technical environments. They explored foundational leadership theories, strategic planning, inclusive leadership practices, and change management. Through practical applications, learners built a comprehensive professional strategy, including personal and organizational plans, and gained skills in coalition building. This Specialization prepares leaders to excel in technical fields, drive change, and effectively lead diverse teams in challenging situations.

The online specialization named in this certificate may draw on material from courses taught on-campus, but the included courses are not equivalent to on-campus courses.
